

Opportunity: Volunteer to become a Peace Ambassador!

Location: Work from Home / Remote

Availability: Immediate

What if everything we've done to fight climate change is being undone by the massive impact of the global military industry? The truth is, without understanding and addressing this hidden driver and making it truly accountable, real progress remains out of reach.

So, how can we truly make a difference? The answer starts with you.

Join us as a Peace Ambassador and become a vital part of a global movement that tackles the root causes and drives meaningful, lasting change for our planet's future.

Context

The Global Institute For Tomorrow (GIFT) is running the "War on Climate: Unveiling the Uncounted Costs of Conflict" free webinar on 12 June 2025. It is a must-watch for anyone who cares about the future of our planet and wants to understand one of the greatest hidden drivers of climate change and environmental degradation. The webinar will open with a keynote address by Dr. Naledi Pandor, renowned South African politician, educator, and academic.

This webinar will be the launchpad for a bold, global movement aimed at transforming climate action and policy, with the ultimate goal of driving these issues onto the United Nations agenda in November this year.

We need help to spread the word to ensure as many people as possible will watch this webinar. We need to raise an uproar that will kickstart and carry forth this movement. We cannot do this without your help!

As a Peace Ambassador, you will...

- Promote the free Zoom webinar "War on Climate: Unveiling the Uncounted Costs of Conflict" (<https://thewaronclimate.org/>) within your personal and professional networks
- Research and identify other individuals, organisations, and media platforms worldwide, and share this webinar with them
- Help drive a global movement aimed at transforming climate action

Who are we looking for?

- Anyone with some time and passion for making a real difference
- Proactive individuals who can deliver a strong message
- Be eager to approach and actively connect with a diverse list of people and organisations to join this webinar

Why volunteer?

- Be among the first in the world to join and lead this vital effort
- Gain deep insights into the real drivers of climate change
- Focus your efforts on an initiative that is meaningful, backed by academic research and on a movement that can transform climate policy
- This is a unique addition to your profile / CV. After project completion, GIFT can provide a personalised reference letter upon request.

The Global Institute For Tomorrow (GIFT)

Founded in 2004, GIFT is an independent pan-Asian think tank. We are dedicated to advancing a deeper understanding of today's most critical drivers of change—from the emergence of a post-Western world to the reshaping of global capitalism and the dynamic relationship between business, society, and the state.

With offices and representation in Hong Kong, Singapore, Kuala Lumpur, and Jakarta, our practical insights, internationally acclaimed leadership learning curriculum, and outcome-driven facilitation help our clients anticipate and navigate a turbulent 21st century.
