

Global Leaders Programme 2025

Indonesia's Entertainment Industry: Drawing on the Private Sector to Expand the Investment Canvas

Programme Design

Module 1: 24 – 28 Nov
Classroom Sessions | Hong Kong, China

Module 2: 29 Nov – 5 Dec
Experiential Field Project | Indonesia

International senior leaders will undergo rigorous classroom sessions before travelling to Jakarta and Yogyakarta, Indonesia to immerse themselves in a high-impact experiential project, designed in partnership with Koalisi Seni, leading Indonesian art policy advocacy coalition.

Objective: Design a robust strategic model to drive investment into world-class entertainment production through uncovering private and public sector opportunities.

To achieve this, participants will apply their expertise, conduct desktop research, and utilise insights from on-the-ground engagement with a variety of stakeholders.

Stakeholders to be met include:

Teuku Riefky Harsya
Minister of Creative Economy (Ekraf)

Key Benefits for GLP Participants

Elite Network: Connect with high-profile leaders during the programme and through the 2,000+ GIFT alumni network, driving value through potential partnerships and collaborations.

Hone Innovative Thinking: Develop out-of-the-box problem-solving through socially driven real world projects, enhancing cross-cultural competence, creativity, and resourcefulness.

Strategic Market Insights: Gain a deep-rooted understanding of Indonesia's socio-economic dynamics, uncovering actionable insights for investment and market expansion in the largest ASEAN country.

More About Our Project Partner

Expanding Reach: Operations across 24 provinces in Indonesia, with over 340 members contributing to arts policy and ecosystem building.

Award-Winning: Contributions to UNESCO's 2023-2024 artistic freedom monitoring platform and international forums in 2025.

Global Recognition: Supported by international organisations such as Ford Foundation and British Council; featured in 2023 research paper on democratic art-making.

For more information, visit the GLP page, or contact GIFT Managing Director, Eric Stryson at estryson@global-inst.com or +852 9736 5595

Submit nominations by 15 October 2025

<https://global-inst.com/>

